Dear Judges Conley, Crabb, and Crocker:

I am very pleased to inform the Court that Leah Fillbach Lenzendorf was sworn in on January 3, 2012, as a Special Assistant United States Attorney for this district. She will be handling cases in both our criminal and civil divisions.

Leah graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in May 1995, and then graduated from Hamline University School of Law in May 1998. After graduating from law school, she clerked for the Arizona Court of Appeals and was an Adjunct Professor at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. From August 2001 to the present, Leah suspended her law practice to work full time as an Air Force spouse. She successfully managed volunteer work, raising her family, and organizing four major household moves in ten years. As part of her long-range plan, with both her children now in school, Leah has returned to the law.

Dear Judges Conley, Crabb, and Crocker:

I am very pleased to inform the Court that Kevin F. Burke was sworn in on January 3, 2012, as an Assistant United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin. He will be handling cases in our criminal division.

Kevin graduated from St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota, in 1990. He was an officer in the U.S. Army from 1990 - 1994, and graduated from Southern Illinois Law School in 1997. From May 1998 -2005, Kevin was a prosecutor in Alaska - first as an Assistant District Attorney in Nome, then moving to a position handling environmental crimes statewide, then becoming a white collar crimes prosecutor and Supervisor of the Office of Special Prosecutions for Alaska. Kevin joined the Southern District of Illinois as an AUSA in February 2005 and has handled a wide variety of significant cases for that district, including public corruption cases, environmental crimes, drug crimes, and large fraud cases. From December 2008 to December 2009, Kevin was a resident legal advisor for the United States Department of Justice in Iraq heading the Rule of Law Section. During his time in Iraq, he was the reconstruction team leader in Kirkuk, Iraq.
